Saturday, Oct 26

Hornblower Champagne & Jazz Brunch Cruise — Enjoy a relaxing two-hour cruise on San Diego Bay with a lavish brunch buffet and spectacular city views. Brunch features free-flowing champagne and a fabulous buffet prepared fresh onboard. The menu features a bakery station, seasonal salads, Eggs Benedict, seafood, a carving board, and full breakfast hotline. The ship will take us on a relaxing voyage under the Coronado Bridge, with live music, beautiful scenery, and a lot of open space to socialize. Transportation from the hotel will be provided. (Ship boards 10:30 AM – returns at 1:00) Hornblower Brunch.

Dinner at Il Fornaio — For dinner we'll have a traditional Italian feast on Coronado Island overlooking the bay. The restaurant specializes in authentic Italian cuisine and even has its own Italian bakery. Just have a look at their facebook page to start your mouth watering. (6:00 – 9:00 PM)

Sunday, Oct 27

Brunch at The Bali Hai — The reviews were so positive about this place last year that... well, why mess with success. With another stunning view of the bay and more food than anyone can eat, no one heads home hungry after this. Not far from the hotel for those who want to walk, but we will also have reserved parking in front of the restaurant. Bali Hai Brunch.

Straggler's Dinner — For those hanging around Sunday evening, we'll meet for a farewell dinner to relax and share highlights of the weekend, and ideas for next year. Our usual location is Fiddler's Green in Point Loma. For questions, please call Chris Holl @ 858.231.9588 or email Chris\_Holl@hotmail.com and put Lamborghini Event in the subject line to make sure I see it.
